CONGRESSIONAL RECORD VOTE CORRECTIONS

The following are additional corrections in the official outcome of votes taken during the second session of the 101st Congress.

The lists are subdivided into "Vote Corrections" and "Stand or Announcement Changes." The former may involve adjustment of the "Yeas" and "Nays" in the breakdown on Congressional Quarterly vote charts; the latter do not affect the breakdown.

Congressional Record "Stand or Announcement Changes" listed below were inserted in the Record too late for CQ to include on current Weekly Report vote charts; Weekly Report pages where these votes may be found are indicated so that you may bring your Weekly Report file into conformity with the Record.

Symbols used in these vote corrections:

Y - Yea	+ - Announced For
N - Nay	- - Announced Against
? - Absent	# - Paired For
C - Voted "Present" to avoid possible conflict of interest	X - Paired Against
	P - Voted "Present"

Nobody gets you closer to Congress than Congressional Quarterly...

BECAUSE CONGRESS IS ALL WE DO.

Unlike other news organizations that cover sports, local news, business, entertainment and other subjects, Congressional Quarterly covers only one subject... Congress. Consequently we do it better and in more detail than anyone else.

WASHINGTON ALERT... AN ONLINE SERVICE WITH EDITORIAL MUSCLE

As CQ's online service, Washington Alert has more editorial muscle than any other online information service.

This editorial connection pays big dividends in adding more information, insight and analysis to congressional legislation in progress. And this means you won't risk missing something important that goes on in the Congress.

THE POWER TO FIND ANYTHING FAST AND EASY

With Washington Alert, it's easy to keep current on any issue. You get the power to search thousands of articles and bills in seconds without having to rely on a "key word" index.

Instead, you can use your own words and phrases to keep track of any information on your issue, including scheduled hearings, floor action and votes, bill status reports, and CQ's in-depth analyses.

Washington Alert puts you in complete control!

THE PROFESSIONAL CHOICE

If your business is Congress, only Washington Alert from Congressional Quarterly Inc. gives you the powerful combination of Capitol Hill's most respected full-time reporting staff, plus a highly sophisticated and computerized tracking system.

From Congressional Quarterly Books

Two new books describe fundamental changes in the way Congress works today.

Some of the recent shifts in congressional rules, procedures, party politics, and coalition-building have been rapid-fire and sensational. Others, more gradual and subtle.

Two new books from CQ, Taxing Choices: The Politics of Tax Reform, and Vital Statistics on Congress 1989-1990, help you understand the contemporary dynamics of policy-making.

The dramatic example of taxes

Taxing Choices — a book about politics, not economics — vividly describes how the Tax Reform Act of 1986 survived premature obituaries to become the most important tax bill in 60 years.

Interviews with 50 high-ranking participants, including Sen. Bob Packwood, Sen. Patrick Moynihan, Rep. Dan Rostenkowski, Rep. Richard Gephardt, James Baker, and Tip O'Neill recreate the drama of Congress' sweeping rewrite of the U.S. tax code. The authors also compare the tax bill's process to that of other recent legislation, such as deregulation and consumer and environmental protection.

Senator Dave Durenberger (R-Minn.) calls Taxing Choices
"... a compelling drama that captures the tensions, tradeoffs, and compromises inherent in our political institutions."

Fewer headlines, just as meaningful

Vital Statistics on Congress 1989-1990 gives you a perspective on more subtle developments in Congress and among legislators. In this latest edition, political scholars Norman J. Ornstein, Thomas E. Mann, and Michael J. Malbin organize more than 130 tables and figures with eight interpretive introductions on congressional activity and change.

Easily understood tables and charts help you analyze data as you study the House and Senate together and apart ... elections and parties ... staffs and committees ... campaign finance ... workload ... budgeting and voting alignments.

You'll learn to quickly spot important trends, including the reform of the seniority system, the development of the budget process, and the changing numbers of black, women, and younger members of Congress. A complete index speeds and simplifies your research.

David Broder of the Washington Post says "The numbers portrayed are ... startling."
